Objectives

Winter 2022 Translations

One of the most important duties of the partners is to translate the content of the educational videos and the webpage on all partners languages. With this, they will make the content of the program more attractive and easier to all perioperative students, new nurses, chief nurses and educators follow and final take a look at the video in familiar version.

Ensure the widest use and dissemination of the MYORCO webpage and the educational modules throughout the project to ensure its full exploitation after the end of the project by the health institutions for Perioperative nurses and in public and private hospitals in the partner countries, in Europe and in the rest of the world.

News from Partners

News from Belgium : Since the last meeting in Pardubice, filming has continued. The latest videos are being filmed and other videos are being edited, taking into account feedback from the MYORCO partners as they also are experts within perioperative care. Being able to shoot in a real environment has an impact on the quality of the educational videos.

News from Czech Republic : The meeting of the Erasmus+ project "My Operating Room Nurse Coach" implementation team took place at the University of Pardubice on December 15 and 16, 2022. At the meeting attended representatives from Sweden, Finland, Belgium, and France. Gest at the meeting was Ing. Jaroslava Jedličková, MBA, a head nurse of the operating rooms at the University Hospital in Brno and a Chairwoman of the Section of Perioperative Nurses of the Czech Association of Nurses. At the meeting we discussed several issues e.g. concerning completion of the short educational videos, translations, presentation of the project, the website project, and the user manual in using the project outputs. Part of the meeting was a Christmas concert of the University of Pardubice Art Ensemble, a walk through to the snow-covered historical city centre, including the Christmas market, and two social events.

The conference on the occasion of European Day of Perioperative Nurses 2023 was held in Prague February 10th. The Czech MYORCO team presented poster about MYORCO project ERASMUS +
